

THANK YOU for allowing us to tell you who we are! EXPOSE is a new Performance Arts School in Snellville with classes in Dance, Music and Theatre. We have exceptional instructors, foster a fun, positive, supportive learning environment, and we offer incredible performance opportunities. The following is a brief outline of all classes offered and fees. For more detailed descriptions, please visit us at: www.rickandruby.com/expose_dance_classes.

EXPOSE'S PERFORMANCE ARTS CLASSES

Dance - Dance classes are high energy and will teach students the skill of following simple to complex choreography. Classes will focus on teaching various dance techniques and movement with the goal of fully preparing students for auditions as dancers, in addition to being singers and actors. Music - A study of various American contributions to the world's musical culture with an emphasis on understanding musical terminology and developing the ability to execute musical performances in the following genres: pop, rhythm & blues, country, jazz, gospel and blues.

Theatre/Drama - Theatre classes focus on developing acting skills that include character study, development and portrayal, physical movement and stage positioning, proper use of voice with an emphasis on vocal projection with control and proper diction, improvisation techniques, and occasional integration of singing and choreography. Students will learn elements of theatre such as: structure, plot, dialogue, setting, theme and scene-development.

Dance classes are held on Monday. Music classes are held on Tuesday, and Theatre/Drama classes are held on Wednesday.
